Dear Gia and Dr Singh

I am writing this email as a last resort to get paid on my invoices. I have called and written been told I would be receiving my money only to not hear from anyone again. I always felt I was A friend to your company and also to you, but obviously I am just another vendor. I would like to hear back from someone when I will be receiving my money in full and if you choose not to i will have to go a different route to collect all my money for the equipment. I really hope you can find it in your heart to pay me right away as it has affected the stability of my company and would not enjoy seeking any damages if I were to lose money due to this.

Thank You

Rick Kopin
